Faculty

Lisa is best known for her passion for dance and creative choreography. She earned a full scholarship to Robert Joffrey's School of Ballet in NYC. Lisa chose to utilize another scholarship from Joe Tremaine and at the age of 17 moved to LA. She has appeared in videos, Television Productions, and national commercials for McDonalds and Diet Coke. She has danced with Paula Abdul, tapped with Tony Danza, and was the Dance Club Barbie. She is proudest of her husband, and her three children.

Ethan is originally from Burnsville, MN. He began his formal dance training at 17 with Premiere Dance Academy. After graduating, Ethan attended Oklahoma City University where he earned his B.S. in American Dance Pedagogy. While at OCU, Ethan performed with American Spirit Dance Company, and Liturgical Spirit of Grace. He also was able to teach class at the Community Dance Center. After graduation, Ethan performed at Frontier City. Ethan currently teaches at Harding Fine Arts Academy, Range of Motion Dance Studio, and Ascend Dance Studio. Ethan has been working with OK-LA since 2020. He has a unique style that you will fall in love with doing.
